Összehasonlító Jogi Képzés

A Szegedi Tudományegyetem Állam- és Jogtudományi Kara évtizedek óta hangsúlyt helyez arra, hogy diplomásaink ne csupán a nemzeti jog ismeretével felvértezve hagyják el intézményünket. A globalizált világ napjainkban olyan kihívások elé állítja a jogászokat, melyek minden korábbinál szélesebb joganyag megismerését követelik meg a hallgatóktól. Ezen igényeket a Karunkon oktató professzorok és a külföldi egyetemekkel folytatott együttműködések keretében nálunk oktató tanárok igyekeznek kielégíteni. Hallgatóink ma már számos idegen nyelvű képzési program közül válogathatnak, ahol a német, francia, vagy éppen az Egyesült Államok jogrendszerét ismerhetik meg az adott országból érkező professzorok segítségével. Ezek a képzések a nálunk tanuló külföldi diákok, így az Erasmus program keretében hozzánk érkező hallgatók számára is nyitottak.

A képzésről általában

A 2010-ben indult, bizonyítvánnyal záruló Összehasonlító Jogi Képzés célja egyrészt az, hogy külföldi hallgatóink hasznosan töltsék el idejüket Szegeden, és a széles kínálatból összeállított kurzusok elvégzését követően bizonyítvánnyal is gazdagodhassanak. Emellett a világ meghatározó jogrendszerei iránt komolyan érdeklődő – elsősorban jogász, közgazdász és nemzetközi tanulmányok szakos – nem Erasmus hallgatóink számára is lehetőséget kívánunk nyújtani a képzésben való részvételre.

A képzés struktúrája

A képzésben meghirdetett kurzusokat a Szegedi Tudományegyetem oktatói, illetve francia, német, brit és egyesült államokbeli vendégoktatók tartják angol, francia vagy német nyelven. A képzés kötelezően, illetve szabadon választható kurzusokat tartalmaz. A szabadon választható kurzusokat a tárgyalt jogrendszer vagy tematika alapján az eligazodást megkönnyítő modulokba csoportosítottuk.

A képzés keretében elvégzett kurzusok önállóan is alkalmasak arra, hogy az Erasmus hallgatók anyaintézményükbe visszatérve a kreditpontokat felhasználhassák. Bizonyítványt azok kapnak, akik az előírt 30 kreditpontot megszerzik úgy, hogy legalább 2 kötelezően és legalább 3 szabadon választott kurzust teljesítenek. A francia nyelvű elméleti kurzusok (CM) önállóan is felvehetők, a gyakorlati órák (TD) csak a kapcsolódó elméleti kurzussal együtt választhatók. Más karok által meghirdetett kurzusokat is jóvá lehet írni az Összehasonlító Jogi Intézet hozzájárulásával maximum 4 kreditpont erejéig. A képzés tetszőleges számú félév alatt teljesíthető.

Jelentkezés és felvételi követelmények

A képzésre jelentkezni az Összehasonlító Jogi Intézet honlapján található jelentkezési lap visszaküldésével lehet. A jelentkezés és kurzusfelvétel határideje a szorgalmi időszak első hetének utolsó napja. A kurzusfelvétel az ETR-rendszerben egyénileg, elektronikus úton történik. Nem Erasmus hallgatók számára a képzésben való részvétel előfeltétele egyetemi tanulmányaikban két félév sikeres lezárása. A képzésben hallgatói jogviszonnyal nem rendelkező diplomás érdeklődők is részt vehetnek. A jelentkezők nyelvismeretét az Intézet előzetesen nem vizsgálja, az előadások, gyakorlatok és vizsgák azonban kizárólag a tanrendben meghirdetett nyelven zajlanak és teljesíthetők.

A képzésben az Erasmus hallgatók térítésmentesen vehetnek részt. Nem Erasmus hallgatók számára a képzésben való részvétel díja 20 000.- Ft/félév, az SZTE-n hallgatói jogviszonnyal nem rendelkező diplomás érdeklődők számára 40 000.- Ft/félév.

Bizonyítvány

A képzést sikeresen teljesítő hallgatók az Összehasonlító Jogi Intézet által kiállított bizonyítványt kapnak, ami tartalmazza a teljesített kurzusokat és a hallgató minősítését.

Comparative Law Programme

For decades, it has been a priority of the Faculty of Law at the University of Szeged to provide students with the opportunity of becoming familiar with legal systems other than that of Hungary. In today's globalised world lawyers face the challenge of the application of an ever widening set of legal rules. Our Faculty answered this challenge by offering transnational and comparative courses of its own as well as initiating cooperation with universities from all around the world. Students at our Faculty can now choose from a variety of foreign legal programmes where they will gain in-depth knowledge of the legal systems of France, Germany and the United States with the assistance of dedicated visiting professors from the countries involved. These programmes are also open to foreign students including those participating in the Erasmus student exchange programme.

A General Introduction to the Programme

From 2010, the Comparative Law Programme aims to facilitate a fruitful academic experience in Szeged for visiting students from abroad by offering them the opportunity of obtaining a certificate after completing courses selected from a wide range of options. Applications from non-Erasmus students – preferably pursuing studies in Law, Economics or International Relations – interested in the world's major legal systems are also welcome.

Structure of the Programme

Courses offered in the framework of the Programme are taught in English, French or German by our University staff as well as French, German, British and American visiting professors. The Programme consists of compulsory and optional courses. For easier reference, optional courses are divided into modules according to subject areas.

Credits earned for the completion of individual courses in the framework of the Programme are eligible for recognition by the home university under the ECTS system. A certificate will be awarded to those who obtain the required 30 credit points by completing at least 2 compulsory and 3 optional courses. Enrolment in practical courses in French (TD) is allowed only in parallel with the corresponding main theoretical course (CM). With the prior consent of the Institute of Comparative Law, courses offered by other Faculties of the University can be recognised up to a maximum of 4 credit points. The Programme can be completed in one or more semesters according to the participants' choice.

Application and Admission

To apply, please return the application form available on the website of the Institute of Comparative Law. The courses are to be selected on an individual basis using the Internet based Unified Academic System (ETR). For non-Erasmus students, admission is conditional on prior successful completion of two semesters in their university studies. The Institute does not verify the applicants' linguistic skills in advance. Lectures, practical courses and examinations are offered and administered exclusively in the languages indicated in the curriculum.

The Programme is offered free of charge for Erasmus students. For non-Erasmus students the participation fee is HUF 20 000.- per semester.

Certificate

Upon successful completion of the Programme students will be awarded a certificate stating the completed courses and corresponding grades.

Ausbildung in Rechtsvergleichung

Die Fakultät für Staats- und Rechtswissenschaften der Universität Szeged legt seit Jahrzehnten großen Wert darauf, dass unsere Absolventen nicht nur mit Landesrecht Kenntnisse unser Institut verlassen. Heutzutage stellt die globalisierte Welt die Juristen vor Herausforderungen, die von den Studenten umfassendere Rechtskenntnisse als je zuvor erwünschen. Die Professoren an unserer Fakultät und die Lektoren - die im Rahmen einer Kooperation mit Auslandsuniversitäten bei uns unterrichten - bemühen sich diese Ansprüche zu erfüllen. Unsere Studenten können heutzutage schon von zahlreichen fremdsprachlichen Programmen wählen, wobei sie das deutsche, französische Rechtssystem, bzw. das Rechtssystem der Vereinigten Staaten mit der Hilfe von Professoren des bestimmten Landes kennenlernen können. Diese Kurse sind sowohl für die ausländische Studenten die an unserer Universität studieren, als auch für die Studenten die im Rahmen des Erasmus Programmes zu uns gekommen sind offen.

Über die Ausbildung im Allgemeinen

Das Ziel des Rechtsvergleichenden Studiengangs ist einerseits, dass unsere ausländische Studenten ihre Zeit in Szeged sinnvoll verbringen und nach Kursabschluss auch ein Zertifikat erhalten, andererseits bieten wir die Möglichkeit für Studenten die sich ernsthaft für die bestimmende Rechtssysteme der Welt interessieren – v.a für Studenten der Fakultäten für Rechtswissenschaft, Volkswirtschaft und internationale Studien, bzw. die keine Erasmus Studenten sind, an der Ausbildung teilzunehmen.

Die Struktur der Ausbildung

Die Kurse der Ausbildung werden von den Dozenten der Universität Szeged, bzw. französische, deutsche, britische und Gastlektoren aus den Vereinigten Staaten auf Englisch, Französisch oder Deutsch gehalten. Die Ausbildung beinhaltet sowohl Pflichtveranstaltungen als auch Wahlfächer. Die Wahlfächer haben wir ins behandelte Rechtssystem oder laut Thematik in verschiedene Module, die die Orientierung vereinfachen, gruppiert.

Die Kurse der Ausbildung sind auch selbstständig geeignet dafür, dass die Erasmus Studenten nach ihrer Rückkehr zu ihrer Mutterfakultät die Kreditpunkte gebrauchen. Ein Zertifikat erhalten diejenigen, die die vorgeschriebenen 30 Kreditpunkte erwerben, so dass sie mindestens 2 Pflichtseminare und mindestens 3 Wahlfächer absolvieren.

Die theoretischen Kurse auf französisch (CM) kann man auch selbstständig aufnehmen, die Seminare (TD) sind nur mit den zusammenhängenden theoretischen Kurs aufzunehmen. Kurse von anderen Instituten können auch anerkannt werden, mit der Zustimmung des Instituts für Rechtsvergleichung in Maximalzahl von 4 Kreditpunkten. Die Ausbildung kann in beliebigen Anzahl von Semester absolviert werden.

Bewerbungsvoraussetzungen

Man kann sich mit der Rücksendung des Anmeldeformulars bewerben, das sich auf der Homepage des Instituts für Rechtsvergleichung befindet. Die Kurse müssen einzeln, mit dem ETR System, auf elektronischer Weise aufgenommen werden.

Für nicht Erasmus Studenten ist die Teilnahmevoraussetzung, dass sie zwei Semester ihrer Universitätsstudien erfolgreich abgeschlossen haben. Die Sprachkenntnisse der Bewerber werden im Vorhinein nicht getestet, dennoch sind die Vorlesungen, Seminare und Prüfungen nur in dem Kursprogramm angegebenen Sprachen vorgetragen und zu bestehen.

Für Erasmus Studenten ist die Ausbildung gebührenfrei. Für nicht Erasmus Studenten beträgt die Studiengebühr 20.000 HUF pro Semester.

Zeugnis

Nach erfolgreichem Abschluss der Ausbildung können die Studenten ein von dem Institut für Rechtsvergleichung ausgestelltes Zertifikat erhalten, welches die absolvierte Kurse, bzw. die Bewertungen der Studenten beinhaltet.

Formation de droit comparé

Depuis des années, la Faculté de droit de l'Université de Szeged met l'accent pour que les jeunes diplômés sortant de l'université aient des connaissances, sur le droit d'autres pays, outre que leur droit national. En raison de la mondialisation, les juristes doivent faire face à des défis nécessitant une large gamme de connaissances en droit. Les professeurs de la Faculté de droit et les enseignants venant d'autres pays dans le cadre des coopérations avec des universités étrangères font leur possible pour satisfaire à ces demandes. Actuellement, nos étudiants ont la possibilité de choisir parmi plusieurs formations en langue étrangère qui leur fournissent des connaissances notamment en droit allemand, français et américain à l'aide de professeurs venant de ces pays. Ces formations sont également ouvertes aux étudiants étrangers, y compris les étudiants venant dans le cadre d'un accord Erasmus.

La formation

L'objectif de la Formation de droit comparé – qui sera lancée en 2010 et sanctionnée par un certificat – est de permettre d'une part, que les étudiants étrangers puissent faire une formation qui leur sera utile et, à la suite de la validation de cours, couvrant une gamme assez large, qui leur fournira un certificat. D'autre part, nous souhaitons offrir cette possibilité de participer à ces formations à tous nos étudiants non Erasmus – surtout de droit mais aussi d'économie et d'études internationales - qui seraient intéressés par les principaux systèmes juridiques de divers États.

Structure de la formation

Les cours de la formation sont dispensés par des enseignants de l'Université de Szeged et par des enseignants français, allemand, anglais et américains dans leur langue respective. La formation comprend des cours obligatoires et optionnels. Les cours optionnels sont regroupés dans des modules suivant le système juridique ou thématique en question.

Au sein de leur université d'origine, les étudiants Erasmus peuvent faire accepter les points de crédit des cours validés dans le cadre de la formation. Le certificat sera remis à ceux qui ont validé les 30 points de crédit prescrits et composés au moins de 2 cours obligatoires et de 3 cours optionnels. Les cours magistraux (CM) en langue française peuvent être indépendamment choisis mais les travaux dirigés (TD) ne peuvent être choisis qu'ensemble avec le cours magistral. Un maximum de 4 points de crédit issus des cours des autres facultés peuvent également être validés par l'Institut de droit comparé. La formation peut être validée en plusieurs semestres.

Inscription et conditions d'accès

Pour s'inscrire à la formation, il faut remplir et retourner, à l'Institut de droit comparé, la fiche d'inscription qui peut être téléchargée sur le site internet de l'Institut. L'inscription aux cours se fait individuellement via internet dans le système ETR. Les étudiants non Erasmus doivent avoir validé deux semestres d'études universitaires pour pouvoir s'inscrire à la formation. La connaissance linguistique des candidats ne sera pas préalablement vérifiée par l'Institut, mais il faut savoir que les cours magistraux, les travaux dirigés et les examens seront dispensés et validés en langue étrangère précisée dans le programme d'études.

Les étudiants Erasmus peuvent participer à la formation sans frais d'inscription. Les étudiants non Erasmus doivent verser des frais d'inscription de 20.000 HUF par semestres.

Certificat

Les étudiants ayant validé la formation recevront le certificat de l'Institut de droit comparé dans lequel seront indiqués les cours validés et la qualification de l'étudiant.

HAJDÚ, József	Introduction to the International, EU and Hungarian Social Security Law
Aims	The course examines the role of social security law in Hungary, the EU and worldwide. The regulation of social security and social assistance is set in the context of the political, economical and historical development of respective countries.
Subject	The course mainly deals with the general characterization of social insurance and social assistance schemes, the development of health care and pension schemes in Hungary, and the present regulation of the Hungarian Social Security System. The first part of the course will address the basic facts of social security: social security and social assistance schemes, legal aspect of social security, entitlement, insured persons, financing of social security and social assistance schemes. The second part of the course will focus on the Hungarian regulation of social security: payment of contributions, contribution rate, benefits, amount of benefits, revalorisation of benefits, rules of procedure.

BADÓ, Attila/BÓKA, János/MEZEI, Péter	Introduction to Comparative Law and Comparative Constitutional Law
Aims	The aim of the course is to familiarize students with the major legal systems of the world and the foundations of comparative law. During the course, following the introduction of the major legal families, legal systems and the theory of comparative law, a comparative analysis will be carried out of specific legal institutions as well.
Subject	Students can improve their knowledge of the Anglo-Saxon, continental and selected religious legal systems. The most important topics of the course are the following: 1. The theoretical problems of comparative law. 2. Introduction to the world of the Anglo-Saxon legal systems. 3. German law. 4. French law. 5. Religious legal systems. 6. Comparative civil law. 7. Comparative criminal law.

KARSAI Krisztina/SZOMORA Zsolt	Introduction to the Hungarian criminal law in a comparative perspective
Aims	The main objective of the course is to give an introduction to the system of Hungarian criminal law: what the main characteristics of substantive criminal law are, and how the criminal procedure works in Hungary. Furthermore, some basic features of the execution of penalties are discussed. A comparative method will be applied during the course: the students learn the Hungarian institutions of criminal law in a broad comparative context (systematic context, European context and „bilateral” context) in order to be able to evaluate the comparable institutions of the legal orders (criminal law) of their respective countries. Consequently, this approach enables the students not only to know the basics of Hungarian criminal law, but also to understand the criminal law of their own legal system better.

Subject	Introduction to the history of the Hungarian criminal law (criminal justice); Basic structure of criminal law (in Hungary and in other European countries); Characteristics of the general part of the Hungarian criminal law (with comparative aspects); Selected fields of the special part of the Hungarian criminal law (with comparative aspects); Law of penal execution; Scenario-based comparative work (model case)

BÓKA, János	Contracts in Private Law
Aims	The course aims to present key aspects of the formation, execution and extinction of private law contracts as well as selected issues related to modification, breach and legal effect from a practical and comparative legal perspective. Students will have the opportunity to compare and analyse solutions offered by different legal systems through sample cases and selected legal materials. The course also offers an introduction to past and current harmonisation efforts concerning the areas of contract law under discussion.
Subject	Offer and acceptance; Cause and consideration; Revocability of an offer; Modification of a contract; Legal effects of a breach of contract; The role of fault in liability for breach of contract; Clausula rebus sic stantibus; Contracts and transfer of property, Applicable law to cross-border contracts; The future of European contract law

1. Magyar jogi modul / Module: The Law of Hungary / Ungarisches Rechtsmodul / Module de droit hongrois

JÓZSA, Zoltán	Introduction to Hungarian Public Administration Law
Aims	The lecture provides a chronological overview of the political, economical and legal changes which resulted in a radical transformation of the institutional and organisation structure and scope of Hungarian public administration from 1990. It begins with investigation into the circumstances of the establishment of the Hungarian system of local government, as, curiously, the development of democratic public administration sprang from local level. The influences of the system of local governments which has existed for over 10 years will be demonstrated, as will the process of the establishment of a regional level. The course provides an overview of conceptions on the reform of the middle level of public administration (decentralised agencies) as well. Furthermore, it takes into account the technical and political factors which have played a role in the process. Finally, taking into consideration the change in the government every four years, the course will analyse in detail how this affects the system and the responsibilities of central agencies. It will culminate in a summary of the salient features of the Hungarian public administrative system.
Subject	1. Constitutional basis. 2. The role of the prime minister and the government. 3. Consultative and advisory bodies of central administration. 4. The structure and functions of deconcentrated organs. 5. Supervision, controlling and directing among the units of public institutions. 6. Establishment of local government system. 7. The structure and functions of local government: legal autonomy and local government accountability. 8. Finance of local authorities. 9. Cooperation of local institutions. 10. The modernisation process: regionalisation.

KLEIN, Eckart	Europarecht
Ziel	Verständnisweckung für europarechtliche Zusammenhänge, Institutionen und Grundfreiheiten sowie Einübung in die deutsche Rechtssprache
Inhalt	Dargestellt werden zunächst die Entwicklung der europäischen Integration bis zum Vertrag von Lissabon und ihre Bedeutung für die Mitgliedstaaten. Organe, Rechtsquellen und Rechtsakte der EU werden erörtert. Ein Schwerpunkt wird auf die Abgrenzung der Kompetenzen zwischen Union und Mitgliedstaaten und die Mechanismen der Integration gelegt. Grundrechte und Grundfreiheiten als Bedingung eines demokratisch-rechtsstaatlich funktionierenden Gemeinwesens (Staatenverbundes) werden diskutiert. Dargestellt werden überdies im Überblick die verschiedenen Politikbereiche (z.B. Wirtschafts- und Währungspolitik, Wettbewerbs- und Subventionsrecht, aber auch etwa Gemeinsame Außen- und Sicherheitspolitik). Zuletzt werden die Instrumente der Durchsetzung des Unionsrechts und der Haftung von Union und Mitgliedstaaten für rechtswidriges Handeln erörtert.

4. Bevezetés az Európa-jogba / Introduction to EU law / Einführung ins Europarecht / Introduction au droit européen

EMBER Alex	Institutions and Legal Systems of the EU
Aims	The subject gives an introduction to the European Union itself and its historical development. The subject introduces the EU as an organisation and its legislative, operating and supporting bodies, their structures and how they work in practice.
Subject	History of the European integration; Challenges, the EU had to and has to face;

Organisations within the EU; Decision making and legislation in the European Union;
Financial questions within the EU, Social dimensions of the European Union

SOÓS, Edit	Widening Europe. The European Neighbourhood Policy
Aims:	The aim of the module is to give a comprehensive approach to the neighbourhood policy and the role of local/regional governments and civil society in the development of CBCs in Wider Europe. Szeged is a 'Gate of Europe' towards Western Balkans. Knowledge about the Schengen border, migration policy, security policy and EU's financial support programmes can promote the participants future studies in politics.
Subject:	The European Union is a community of values rooted in democracy, rule of law, respect for human rights, protection of minorities and market economy. All these are the essential prerequisites for political stability as well as for peaceful and sustained neighbourhood policy and socio-economic development. The EU's declared aim is to develop a zone of prosperity and a friendly neighbourhood — a ring of friends — with whom the European Union enjoys close, peaceful and co-operative relations. The enlarged Union has to face a significant number of minorities living in the new MSs and their adjacent countries. The creation of a tolerant and prosperous Europe does not depend only on co-operation between States. The flexible Schengen regime and the new Neighbourhood strategy can offer practical solutions to common problems at local and regional levels, citizens can build 'bridges' across the borders and contribute to 'Europe without new dividing lines'.

KARSAI, Krisztina	Introduction to the European Criminal Law
Aims	Transferring knowledge about the new institutional law of the EU in the field of Justice and Home Affairs and possible future developments. Strengthening the comparative approaches in this field in favour of better analysis of the own legal structures. To establish general understanding how European Law interacts with national criminal law systems.
Subject	After the Lisbon Treaty, the European integration in the area of criminal law gained new horizons: the new competences of the EU in this field promises also new criminal policy on a European level. The seminar offers an introduction to this new way of thinking. The other main topic of the seminar will be a comparative one. The European criminal law has significant impacts on the domestic criminal law in many fields. The national criminal law systems are developing under these impacts, but the structures and legal institutions differ despite the common background of EU Law. Some of the differences concerning the national criminal legislations and law enforcement systems will be examined, with student participation.

JAKAB, Éva	Die römischrechtlichen Wurzeln des europäischen Privatrechts / The Roman Law Tradition in European Private Law
Aims	The course deals with private law, the current laws of which date back to ancient Roman times. The aim of the course is to familiarize students with the historical roots of legal institutions and lays emphasis on both similar and divergent codification solutions through a comparative analysis of European private law.
Subject	The Medieval Rediscovery of Private Law; The General Influence of Roman Institutions of State and Public; The Development of European Private Law: A Romanist Watershed? The Canon Law and the Civilian Influence; The Civil Law in European Codes; Civilian elements in European Legal Procedure; The Role and Relevance of the Civil Law Tradition in the Work of the European Court of Justice; The Influence of the Civil Law, via Modern Legal Systems, on European Community Law

JUHÁSZ, Krisztina	Introduction to the Study of International Relations
Aims:	The aim of the course is the introduction of the main aspects of international relations (IR). In the globalised world students have to have no doubt about the actors of IR and the aims and means of them. Because of the interdependence, which is an important effect of globalization, states and their citizens are influenced by other states and non-state actors. Thus we should examine the actors of IR, the main theories of IR, the means of foreign policy (special regards to diplomacy and war), and the process of globalization.
Subject:	The course makes the students acquainted with the science of international relations. It deals with the history of the science and the main theoretical approaches of it. It surveys the more important eras of the international relations such as the Westphalian system, "the long 19th century" and "the short 20th century". The course examines the actors of international relations: the nation-state, the international organizations (special regards to the United Nations and the NATO), the transnational corporations and the individuals. It analyses the means of foreign policy: especially the diplomacy and the phenomenon of war. It deals with the role of the international law and the ethics in IR. It introduces the process of globalization and its effects. And last but not least it examines the terrorism: the problem of its definition, the history of terrorism and the possible responses to the international terrorism.

RÉVÉSZ, Béla	Political Science and the Analysis of Security Services
Aims	The course raises the following crucial question: What wise and effective policies can help in the continuing, and difficult, battle to protect human rights against the secret services? The post-World War II era of international politics can be divided into two periods. The first, the cold war, ran from roughly 1947 to 1989 and was characterized by a bipolar distribution of power between the United States and the Soviet Union. It was a period of great tension between the two superpowers, and this tense relationship had enormous impact on defining the world political system. The second period, which we are still in, is what might be called the post-cold war period. It began in 1990 with the collapse of the communist world. Looking back to the recent past and attempting to comprehend it, it is very important to understand how broadly and deeply the totalitarianism may affect the cornerstones of contemporary civilization and the extent of feedback impact. The secret services of totalitarianism destroy the institutions of democracy, curtail the freedom of the individual to the maximum, and paralyze the most diverse spheres of civil activity. It is the idea of freedom - the most essential phenomenon of the 20th-century - existing as a political phenomenon under the conditions of totalitarianism that will be the object of this course. The course will discuss the genesis and functions of political repressions, focusing on the specificity of historical experience in the Middle-European countries, analyzing the mechanisms of secret services of totalitarian regime, regarding the practice of democracies.
Subject	State Defence Authority Before the Twentieth Century; State Defence Authority in the World Wars; State Defence Authority in the Cold War; State Defence Authority and the Political Systems; Military Action; State Defence Authority and Political Science; State Defence Authority and the Hungarian Political Science; Post-Cold War and Transition – Hungarian State Defence Authority Reform; The History of Security Activities in Hungary; Act CXXV of 1995 on Hungarian National Security; Comparative Organization of the World's Major State Defence Authority Services; Covert Operations

NAGY, Zsolt	Legal Education in Different Legal Systems
Aims	The aim of this course is to familiarize students with the relationship between the study of law and the legal culture and society in various countries. Training in the law depends first of all on the institutions, culture and legal system of a given culture. The form and manner of education are determined by historical and cultural factors. Within the framework of the course the problem mentioned above will be taken under analysis through a comparison of the similarities and differences among various countries.
Subject	The subjects of the course are the following: The aim and function of legal education including sociological theories on education, the history of legal education in the United States, England, Europe, and Hungary, the major legal systems and related questions, legal education in various states today (USA, GB, Germany, Hungary), the relationship between legal theory and legal education, the impact of legal education on the legal community and the functioning of law.
