

APPRENTICESHIPS

Apprenticeships offer students a unique opportunity to put theory into practice in their chosen career field-of-work. Apprenticeships programmes provide students with the opportunity to gain hands-on experience and improving one's skills at the work place.

A Group of Apprentices in Malta

Through our network of associates, Paragon Europe is involved in hosting and organising apprenticeships with local companies and non-governmental organisations, as well as within our offices.

Apprenticeships provide students with a unique opportunity of learning, developing skills and acquiring transferable skills. Paragon Europe can provide the right environment to develop such skills.

Paragon Europe offers the opportunity for students to work as apprentices within its own offices. Apprentices will have the opportunity to:

- Work on business administration projects including product development as well as market research and marketing opportunities;
- Work within the general administration of the company;
- Compile management reports as well as business plans;
- Work on projects (EU funded or third-party funded);
- Conduct research;
- Assist in the day-to-day work within the different departments.

Apprenticeships in Maltese companies

Through our contacts with Maltese companies in various sectors, Paragon Europe can organise apprenticeships for trainees and students in various companies within a variety of sectors and specialisation fields. We have placed apprentices in the following:

Sectors	Organisation type
• Health	• Professional bodies
• Heritage	• Voluntary firms
• ICT	• SMEs
• Tourism	• NGOs
• Hospitality	• Public Authorities
• PR and Marketing	• Hospitals
• Financial Services	• Hotels & Restaurants

Services offered by Paragon

Paragon Europe organises and manages all the aspects of the apprentice programme including:

- Identifying accommodation;
- Airport transfers, local transportation and social activities.

Food Prepared by Apprentices for an Intercultural Night

Paragon Europe guarantees

- To identify placements by matching, as far as possible, the CV of the apprentice;
- To monitor and to provide total support to the apprentice during his/her stay in Malta.

Additionally, we can also offer a General English language course for 1 or 2 weeks. This course shall support students to familiarise him/herself with learning or improving his/her English before doing the actual placement. Students should be older than 17 years of age.

Ideally apprentices should stay for a minimum of 3 months to fully absorb the advantages of living/working in a foreign country. Most apprentices opt to stay for longer periods.

About Malta

The Maltese Islands, at the centre of Mediterranean, offer the traveller a unique holiday and work experience. Sunny weather, exceptional historical landmarks, safe environment and friendly people make Malta one of the most popular destinations in the Mediterranean.

Blessed with year-sunshine and crystal-clear sea, Malta and its sister islands Gozo and Comino are a fascinating setting for a truly unforgettable vacation. The islands' numerous historical, artistic and natural treasures are there to be discovered and enjoyed, all within easy access from all locations.

Whether one is looking for excitement or relaxation, it can be found in Malta. With an impressive 7000 years of history, Malta is a top destination for history lovers. The islands also host a large number of cultural activities from open-air concerts to village festas. For the active visitor, Malta offers golf, tennis, horse-riding, sky-diving, scuba-diving and water sports.

Malta is a feast for the senses: after a day of sightseeing or relaxing on the beach one can enjoy delicious local dishes and wines. For those who enjoy night life Malta is dotted with many nightclubs/discos which remain open all night. Village festas include spectacular fireworks and one can admire local multicoloured glassware and delicate lace. The hospitality of the local people will enhance your experience and make it truly a holiday to remember. The official languages in The Maltese islands are Maltese (Semitic origin) and English.
