Marketing Trainee Programme Sales Trainee Programme

Philip Morris Germany is part of the multinational company Philip Morris International (PMI), the leading international tobacco company, with products sold in approximately 180 countries.

Our trainee programmes offer you as talented graduate the possibility to start your career in this truly international work environment. During the 2 years programme in Marketing, you will work on challenging tasks in our different brand families of PM Germany, and on innovative projects in Consumer Engagement.

The 2 years programme in Sales offers you exciting insights into all German Sales functions, like Key Account, Strategy & Portfolio Management or Field Force. Both programmes are linked to each other to ensure a holistic insight in our commercial activities.

We give you the opportunity to demonstrate your talent in different projects, with different teams, and to take responsibility for your work from day one.

Your individual professional growth is the key to our future. We want you to build on your professional interest and leadership capabilities while we provide you with honest and frequent feedback, on-the-job coaching, training as well as structured career management. And we reward your efforts with excellent payment conditions.

Your Profile:

- Are you comfortable working in teams, at all levels?
- Are you seeking a workplace where every challenge is met with courage, and curiosity is not only an asset, but also a necessity?
- Do you strive for excellence in work habits and performance?
- Do you have the conviction of a natural leader?
- You have completed or you are about to finish your degree in business studies with above average results.
- You have a passion for brands. You have experienced brand management and trade activities through internships or initial work experience, ideally in FMCG environment.
- You seek an international career and you bring the necessary language skills (excellent in English and German) plus multicultural experience.
- Extra-curricular and social engagement are important to you.
